AN EASTER PRAYER

By Sr. Jeanne Fallon, CSJ

Love Poured Out

Jesus, Son of Mary, you are Love made manifest:
By our lives, may we reveal God's love to the world.

Jesus, Splendor of God's Glory, you came as a child:
Teach us to see you in the great and the small.

Jesus, Begotten One, you are the first-born of all creatures:
May we reflect the One from whom we come.

Jesus, Compassionate One, you touch us with healing love:
May your healing flow through us to our broken world.

Light in the Dark

Jesus, Divine Teacher, you open to us what is hidden from the wise and powerful:

Show us how to offer a word to the weary.

Jesus-Sophia, you are for us the Wisdom of God:

Help us to break the bread of wisdom for others.

Jesus, Light of the World, you show us the way to God:

May we reflect your light in dark places.

Jesus, Truth, you dwell within us, the light of our minds:

Never let us silence your voice.

Spirit at Work

Jesus, Word, you are the revelation of God:

Sing in us your song.

Jesus, Risen One, you reveal the mysteries of God to us,

Help us recognize you in others.

Jesus, Light of Nations, you bring all peoples to you:

Make us bearers of light for each other.

Jesus, Alpha and Omega, you are with us through time:

Draw us to unity that mirrors your own.
