Daily Reflections

THE GLORY OF GOD WITHIN

By Sr. Jane DeLisle, CSJ

Today's Responsorial Psalm and Reflection

We dwell in a world filled with God's glory, beauty, and invitation to be still and ponder God's great love for us, the dear neighbor, and all of creation. We need only pause, be still, and take off our shoes in reverence. For our reflection today, I offer Psalm 104 and a photo.

Read the Psalm slowly. Let the words find a home in your heart. Gaze at the image of the pink flower (below) in all its glory. How is God being revealed in your heart and soul today?

R. O bless the Lord, my soul!

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD, my God, you are great indeed!

*You are clothed with majesty and glory,
robed in light as with a cloak.*

R. O bless the Lord, my soul!

*All creatures look to you
to give them food in due time.
When you give it to them, they gather it;
when you open your hand, they are filled with good things.*

R. O bless the Lord, my soul!

*If you take away their breath, they perish
and return to their dust.*

*When you send forth your spirit, they are created,
and you renew the face of the earth.*

R. O bless the Lord, my soul!

For Pondering and Prayer

- When has God been revealed to you in Creation? Journal your experience.

- Write your own reflection on God's self-revelation to you within your own being, in the graciousness of another person, or in the beauty of creation.
