JOURNEYING THROUGH LENT

OH, MY GOODNESS

By Julie Mussché

*Oh, my Goodness,
Spring is sprung
radiant with God's glory;*

*Can you believe it?
Flowers everywhere
God's paint brush run amuck;*

*The hill resplendent velvety green dappling of flowers hither and yon,
the angels must have been tap-dancing;
The air is thick with fragrance
there's no escaping it,
the Sacred has broken out everywhere;*

Flitting birds and butterflies,

It's really no surprise-Creation bellows with excitement!

The promise of new life emerges extravagantly-can Easter be far behind?
